LIAR, SAYS LAWLER.
Attorney on Stand Accuses Brandeis.
Assistant Attorney-General Rises Wrathfully to Deny Insinuation.
Tells of Being Trained by "Gum Shoe" Men Inspired by Pinchot.
Also Blames Garfield and Others for Corrupting Office Force.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—A day filled with interesting episodes reached an exciting climax in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation late today, when Oscar Lawler, Assistant Attorney-General, author of the famous Lawler memorandum, rose wrathfully from the witness stand and accused Attorney Brandeis of uttering a deliberate untruth.

Then, after he had been rebuked by several members of the committee, Mr. Lawler withdrew his remark and apologized to the committee.

Mr. Lawler was called to the stand by the "defense" to explain the circumstances under which he had prepared for the President a memorandum containing his opinion of the charges filed by Special Agent Glavis against Secretary Ballinger.

Several hours had been consumed in the examination of Frederick M. Kerby, the stenographer in Mr. Ballinger's office who was discharged yesterday because he made public information relating to the Lawler memorandum.

KERBY IS CALLED.
Mr. Kerby was called unexpectedly by Chairman Nelson that he might give sworn testimony about his testimony which Mr. Brandeis had endeavored to have printed in the record with the President's letter last Saturday.

Directly contradicting Secretary Ballinger's testimony, Kerby said his former superior knew about the preparation of the memorandum and participated in a conference on the subject. Furthermore, he said, Lawler had told Private Secretary Carr in his presence that he had left a copy of the memorandum with Mr. Ballinger.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Brandeis, Lawler was reminded of various requests for the document and information bearing on it, which the attorney had sent to Secretary Ballinger through the committee. Mr. Lawler had informed the secretary in each instance that he had supplied all the matter bearing on the Glavis charges "in his possession."

"Didn't you discuss with Mr. Carr the obvious purpose of my requests?"

"No, sir."

"Didn't you discuss with Carr how you could evade my requests?"

"No."

"Didn't you know you were evading?"

PASSER THE LIE.
"That statement is an absolute falsehood by you, sir," shouted the witness, jumping from his seat and facing his inquisitor with flashing eyes.

Mr. Brandeis instantly appealed to the committee to reprimand the witness.

"If my remark has been offensive, I withdraw it and apologize to the committee," said Mr. Lawler.

Mr. Brandeis was placated and resumed his cross-examination.

Mr. Lawler said he had been asked by the President to prepare an opinion, and that he regarded it as a confidential trust. He said he had furnished to the committee all the information he had felt at liberty to divulge, and did not think he had any right to inform the committee that such a memorandum existed.

Immediately after his return to Washington from Beverly last September, Mr. Lawler said he had begun preparation for his memorandum. The original draft, he said, was completed without consulting anybody.

WANTED TO BE CORRECT.
When the draft had been typewritten by Kerby and Massey, he added, he called in Secretary Ballinger and others to hear it read.

"I wanted to be absolutely correct in every statement," explained Mr. Lawler.

He said no one made any suggestion except for the purpose of verification.

Mr. Lawler said he had burned the original draft of the memorandum.

"I was confident," he said, "that 'gumshoe' men had been on my trail for months, and I knew there were no depths of degradation to which they would not stoop. I was afraid some one in the office might be corrupted, as Kerby has been corrupted."

Asked who he thought were behind the "gumshoe" men, Mr. Lawler declared dramatically:

"James B. Garfield, Gifford Pinchot, William H. Taft, a man named Connelly, and that man there."

"You mean Mr. Brandeis?"

"Yes. He came in later. He's the flower of that foul flock."

CAUSES UPROAR.
This reference to the champions of conservation caused an uproar among the spectators, most of whom were women, and there was some hissing.

The witness said he gave two copies of his memorandum to the President's secretary and one to the Attorney-General, and had not given one to

EARTH WILL STRIKE COMET'S TAIL TODAY.
WATCHING.
Following is the schedule for Halley's comet today, based on Pacific Coast standard (Los Angeles) time:
The earth will enter the outer edge of the comet's tail at 4 o'clock p.m.
Sun will set 6:50 o'clock p.m. The moon will be in her zenith two hours later.
Outer edge of comet's head or nucleus will begin passing between the earth and sun 7:25 o'clock p.m.
Comet's head will be central on the sun's disc at 7:50 o'clock p.m.
Comet's head will complete its passage between the earth and sun at 8:15 o'clock p.m.
Earth will emerge from the comet's tail at 12 o'clock midnight.
Moon sets 2:45 a.m. tomorrow.

Today Mother Earth will glide through the tail of the greatest of all known comets, which was discovered by and named after Prof. Halley, the English astronomer. At only two other times has the earth been known to pass through the tail of a comet—in 1819 and again in 1861—and those were small ones.

Much has been said by writers regarding what will happen this afternoon and tonight. Some superstitious people even fear disaster. In some parts of the world thousands have prepared to spend the day praying for deliverance.

Many learned people expect remarkable occurrences. They expect to see great displays of heavenly fireworks. They expect to see so many shooting stars that the heavens will be nearly as light as day. Others expect to see the atmosphere filled with meteors of all kinds. They expect these meteors to fall all over the earth so thickly that it will be dangerous for people to be outdoors. Others firmly expect the air to be filled with clouds of cinders and dust equal to an Arizona sandstorm. Some figure the dust will resemble volcanic ashes, while others state it will look like the fine cinders which are emitted from the smokestack of a locomotive. Others who do not take much stock in the cinders, ashes or meteors, think that inasmuch as there is much electricity in the comet's tail, there will be electrical displays similar to thunderstorms in the mountains. Some believe that telegraph and telephone wires will be tied up, and that lightning rods will show tongues of fire.

However, the learned astronomers, men of authority, men who have put in their lives studying the heavens and all the phenomena relating thereto, expect nothing of the sort. They

SUFFRAGISTS TO TOUR ILLINOIS NEXT WEEK.
CAMPAIGN PLANS.
Who next week will start on automobile canvass of State in campaign for woman suffrage.

CHICAGO, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Campaign Committee of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association will meet tomorrow noon at the Chicago Woman's Club to discuss plans for the initial automobile tour of the organization next week.

Mrs. Cross of Morris, Ill., has proffered the use of her touring car for next week's excursion, and a party of nine including Miss Harriet Grim, State organizer; Mrs. Grace Wilbur Frost, president of the Chicago Political Union; Miss Helen Todd, and Miss Elizabeth Dickerson, will start for that city on Monday afternoon.

Sterling will be the first stop and it is planned to arrive at Freeport Wednesday in time for the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Galena and other towns in the seven northwest counties of the State will be visited at the close of the week.

FORMIDABLE.
The tour of the State is being planned on a formidable scale. Every voting precinct will be visited by the speakers, who will travel in automobiles, four women occupying each machine.

All these women will represent the various branches of women's activity in the trades, the professions and in politics, and all of them will be prepared to make speeches and answer all questions.

In addition to these speakers, another army will invade the State, presenting suffrage plays at every town that boasts an opera-house or theater of any sort. The actresses in these plays are now being drilled for the invasion of the rural districts.

It is hoped to so arouse the women of the State that the legislators will be forced to pledge themselves to support suffrage. As the work progresses organizers will follow, establishing suffrage camps at all points.

Advices from down the State already indicate great interest in the campaign. The rural districts have been flooded with literature and portraits of the lecturers and actresses who will assail the strongholds of selfish men.

POLITICIANS SCOPE.
Politicians affect to believe that the movement will not avail much, but the wisest among them secretly admit that the invasion will stir up the State as nothing else could do.

Automobiles for the traveling lecturers have been donated by wealthy women who espouse the cause and by men who are in sympathy with the movement. There will not be much expense attached to the campaign, as suffragists in various towns will entertain the campaigners free of charge.

Neither must the fact be overlooked that the question of dress will figure in the work. The younger and more handsome of the campaigners will wear the latest and smartest frocks, while the more sedate will be talking in any event the great movement bodes ill for the men politicians who delude themselves with the belief that they are to have everything their own way.

HAS GROUCH AGAINST CITY.

Searches for Honest Councilman on Hot Day With Lighted Lantern.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON (Wash.) May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Grouche, who thought that he had a grievance against the city on account of the recent street assessments, created a sensation yesterday by going around to the various business houses with a lighted lantern in his hand in the middle of a hot day, peering in the faces of those he met and saying that he was looking for an honest Councilman. The laugh on the Councilmen soon grew to such proportions that they threatened him with dire consequences unless he desisted. His friends finally induced him to go home, fearing that his diatribe would end in a fight.

STANTON GETS GOOD SUPPORT.

VISITS PORTERVILLE, EXETER AND LINDSAY.
Meets Bankers, Merchants and Ranchers and is Assured of Their Votes—One Admirer Presents Him With Indian Talisman Supposed to Bring Him Good Luck.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
VISALIA, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Phil Stanton, Republican candidate for Governor, arrived tonight, accompanied by a party of his friends, which was augmented at Porterville, Exeter and Lindsay, where he stopped during the day. The candidate was at Porterville during the morning, and after calling upon many of the business men there, was entertained at lunch by a number of the leading citizens, headed by former Assemblyman Lumley. Mr. Stanton made no speeches today, but he met bankers, merchants and ranchers at the three cities visited, and was assured of the support of the leading men. At Porterville an ardent supporter presented the candidate for Governor with a ring woven of horsetail by an Indian maiden, and supposed to be a talisman and to bring the wearer good luck. At Lindsay a warm reception was given him and assurances that he will receive a large vote in that section of the state were made. Upon his arrival here tonight, Mr. Stanton expressed confidence that Tulare would accord him the majority of its representative vote. Many Southern California people have removed to this county and are ardent Stanton boosters. Mr. Stanton will remain here over night, and tomorrow will proceed to Reedley, Hanford and Corcoran, and thence to Coalinga, Fresno and other points in the Central Valley. "I have been greatly encouraged by the condition of things in Tulare county," he said. "I was told that I was not known in Tulare county, and that I would not get to be the case. But I find this not to be the case. Many former Los Angeles and Orange county people have driven into the city from the ranches to see me and assure me of their support, and in the cities I have come across many who said that they are voting for me. I will get a good vote in Tulare county."

TALE OF BRUTALITY.

DIVORCE GRANTED IN RENO.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
RENO (Nev.) May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After only a six months acquaintance, Mabel C. Bergstrom, a girl of Bartlett Springs, Cal., who went to Honolulu and there taught school, became the wife of John R. Bergstrom, a musician and dealer in musical instruments at Wainae. After a year, it is alleged he beat and choked her into insensibility and friends prevailed upon him to kill her while in his drunken condition. She was finally compelled to seek divorce. A decree was granted her today by Judge Orr. Bergstrom is now in San Francisco. He declared he would come home intoxicated late at night, she keeping his meals waiting for him. At one time he ordered a lady guest at dinner out of the house. The couple were married in July, 1902, and have no children. He did not contest her action.

REQUISITION HONORED.

PORTER SIGNS PAPERS.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
SACRAMENTO, May 17.—Acting Gov. Porter today honored the requisition of Gov. May of Washington for the return to Seattle of Archie R. Bridger, a cigarmaker, under arrest in San Francisco for abandoning a wife and an 18-month-old baby. Porter conducted a hearing on the matter yesterday afternoon. Attorney Albert P. Wheeler of San Francisco having introduced objections to his client being extradited. Deputy Attorney-General J. Charles Jones took the side of the Washington authorities. The requisition was opposed on legal technicalities.

UNDER TRAIN, LOSES LEG.

BAKERSFIELD MAN MANOEUVERS.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
RENO, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While attempting to board a Southern Pacific train pulling out of the yard at Winnemucca, last night, Isadore Lafontaine, formerly of Bakersfield, slipped and fell under the wheels. His right leg was so terribly crushed that it had to be amputated to save his life. Lafontaine, who is 19 years old, was on his way to relatives in Ohio.

FLAMES LEVEL PHOENIX HOTEL.

Hundred and Fifty Guests Driven from Beds.

Many Narrow Escapes and Heroic Rescues.

Other Business Houses Are Damaged—Big Losses.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PHOENIX (Ariz.) May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A fire, early this morning, destroyed Hotel Adams, forcing over 150 guests and inmates to seek safety by means of fire escapes. There were many narrow escapes from death. The flames spread rapidly and other business houses near by were menaced. Several of them being damaged to more or less extent. At one time the flames were so threatening that it was believed that the whole business section of Phoenix was doomed. Teams were sent to other towns in the Territory for additional fire-fighting apparatus. This, however, was not needed. The fire cut off the main entrance to the hotel at once, making it impossible to remove any of the furniture and few of the guests saved any personal property. No lives were lost in the fire.

Ralph Purvis, aged 20, a consumptive from South Dakota, dropped dead in the excitement, while viewing the fire from a near-by lane. The Adams was the largest and best-known hotel in Arizona. It was a four-story brick structure at the corner of Adams and Center streets, with heavy porches for all floors on both streets. The center-street front was occupied by business houses. The building, inside, was a veritable fire trap, the danger being lessened by the ready communication afforded by the porches, which were connected by ladders. At the intersection of the two streets was the elevator, which was the only stair case in its immediate vicinity. The floors were of wood, but the partitions were all plastered, with not a single fire wall. It is considered almost a miracle that no lives were lost, for the whole building was consumed in less than twenty minutes after the alarm was sounded, a few minutes before 6 o'clock. By 7:30 o'clock there was left only an array of charred walls around the courts, the debris of the outer walls filling the two streets.

FINE WATER PRESSURE.
That the whole of the business section of Phoenix did not go up due wholly to the good work of the fire department and to the excellence of the local water supply system, which abundantly fed two fire engines throwing eight streams at a high pressure. The business blocks across Center and Adams streets were after repeated efforts from flying brands and from the awful heat of the main conflagration, but the firemen fought back any further extension.

In the same block, 180 feet to the northward, is located the postoffice, with the Reclamation Service office and its valuable records on the upper floor. Both were saved, though a falling corner of the hotel wall broke through the south wall of an intervening building. There were many acts of heroism. Fire Chief Sullivan and members of the hotel force raced around through the stifling smoke of the corridors, arousing the guests and guiding them to the fire escapes.

HEROIC DEEDS.
Gov. and Mrs. Sloan had their home in the hotel, as did President B. A. Fowler of the Irrigation Congress and Mrs. Fowler. They reached safety by way of a handy roof, thence sliding down an awning to a high wagon that had driven to the right spot. Night Clerk Willey broke into the room occupied by Mary, the young daughter of the Sloan, and carried the child to the street. A number of female guests had to be carried out. Leo Black, a bell boy, was in bed, seriously ill, on the top floor. He was quickly bundled in blankets and hurried below and sent to a hospital. Most of the guests escaped by ladders.

J. M. Jamison, a prominent local attorney, had a room on the fourth floor opening upon the inside court, which was roofed above the office on a level with the top of the second story. Scarcely clothed he left all his belongings to leap to the rescue of a woman whom he saw clinging to a window ledge on his own floor. About ten feet outward from the wall and half way down to the glass roof of the lobby was a jumped, catching it and thence dropping to the roof. Then, running below the woman, he caught her as she dropped the two stories. The woman, Madge Demark, a hotel employe, was unhurt, but her rescuer was painfully bruised.

LOSSES HEAVY.
The total loss will approximate $250,000 of which nearly $100,000 will fall upon J. C. Adams. He has about $5,000 insurance. He is already planning a new and finer hotel. In the hotel block, besides the hotel property the following total losses are reported: F. B. Hildreth, drug store, probably $15,000; H. L. Latham Company, real estate and insurance offices; R. S. Stearns, barber shop; R. M. Johnson, shoe store; Dr. J. C. Martin and Dr. W. J. Simpson, oculists. Green & Griffin Real Estate Investment Company, in a building across the street.

NEAH BAY INDIANS REJOICE OVER CAPTURE OF BIG WHALE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
TACOMA (Wash.) May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Isahbel Curt, a well-known photographer, struck Neah Bay last week just as the Indian reservation was excited over a whale hunt, the second in several months, and witnessed the whole hunting triumph of old "Light-house Joe" over his younger rival, "Skookum Charley." For many years it has been "Charley" whose harpoon brought to the village its prosperity, while the lauridin won by Joe in many a valiant and successful struggle were withering, and he was accorded a place on the shelf. "With seven others in the boat," Curtis says, "Joe" managed to get away from the whale in good time and in a few hours paddling landed with one of the sperm or right hump. With his old dexterity, assisted by the clever boatmanship of his companions, Joe managed to make the fatal catch with his harpoon. "The whale, following his flurry and death, was buoyed nearly with half a dozen seal bladders, made of the whole skin of the whale's head and neck, and by custom each man in the boat is entitled to one-eighth of the carcass, numbered from the whale's head according to the men's position in the boat. The feasting and general joy in the village over the capture of the whale lasts a week or ten days, usually, but the levitations have been scarce lately.

The City Council tonight created the city office of Fire Chief, appointing Pete Sullivan at $1500 per year. He has been serving as a policeman and as Acting Chief for a side salary of $25 per month. During the fire Sullivan made personal search of the deserted rooms for unconscious sleepers at great personal peril.

NEW WINERY AT LODI.

GRAPE CONTRACTS MADE.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LODI, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Another winery is about to be established in or near Lodi in time to handle this season's crop. Charles A. Heinrich of Oakland says he is about to incorporate the Golden West Winery, with ample backing, but he declined to state where his back-brother is making fifteen-year contracts for grapes at $10 per ton, which is just twice what other wineries offered last season and $4 better than offered by this season. These contracts are being signed up by many growers, who are given a chance to make money from their vineyards for fifteen years. The contracts are so worded that they become void if work on the winery is not commenced within sixty days from date. If contracts for the output of at least 10,000 bushels of grapes is signed up Heinrich says the winery plant, costing between $250,000 and $300,000, will be erected here.

POLICE REPORTER SKIPS.

STUNG MANY IN PORTLAND.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chief of Police Cox today signed a complaint charging late against Edward Burke, up to two weeks ago police reporter on a Portland paper, who had been working after hurriedly borrowing all the money he could get, totaling over $2000. Among the amounts borrowed by Burke were $1000 from Sheriff Stevens, $400 from Chief Cox and smaller sums from other officers. In the case of Cox, it is charged that Burke obtained the money under deliberate misrepresentation.

INSOLVENCY PETITIONS FILED.

EUREKA COUNTY BANK FAILURE.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
EUREKA, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Yesterday afternoon in the United States Court petitions for voluntary insolvency were filed by Oscar J. Smith, his wife, Minnie D. Smith, and W. E. Griffith, principal stockholders in the defunct Eureka County Bank. The action is the first case following the failure of the bank. Smith is one of the most prominent bankers and attorneys of Nevada.

RUGBY TEAM STARTS.

Bound for Summer's Tour Through Australia and New Zealand.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—The American Rugby football team composed of representatives of the State universities of Nevada and California and Stanford University, left today for Vancouver en route to Australia and New Zealand.

The invitation for the tour was extended by the New South Wales Rugby Union, which has arranged a schedule for the visitors which will enable them to meet practically all of the representative Rugby fifteens of the Antipodes. A few of the star players of the three universities could not make the tour.

By Error Fruit Saucers Were Advertised As Fruit Jars at Each 2c

In last evening's Express a small line item was inserted in the ad the last minute and by error the word "Jars" went in where "Saucers" should have gone. So it should have been Fruit Saucers 2c each.

Gained Fifteen Pounds

"Am in better condition physically than I have been for years. My stomach, kidneys and liver are in fine shape," says Mr. William A. Burgess.

"While serving in the U. S. Army, 1898 to 1901, I contracted stomach and kidney trouble, from which I have suffered ever since, and for which I receive a pension. I tried many remedies, but none gave any noteworthy effect. About three months ago I began using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a medicine. I have used three bottles and have gained fifteen pounds since I began using it. I am still using it, and I do not think there is any medicine made that is equal to it. My stomach, liver and kidneys are in better order than they have been for years, and if these three organs of the body are kept in order one will have few doctor bills. I cheerfully recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a tonic, a stimulant and renovator of the whole system."

—WILLIAM A. BURGESS, P. O. box 575, Danville, Ill.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

has been before the public for half a century and its curative value has never been questioned. It is an absolutely pure distillation of carefully malted grain. Overworked men, delicate women and sickly children will find in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey the health and strength-giving properties that are so necessary to them. It is prescribed by doctors and recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

In need of advice, write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y., stating your case fully. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a valuable illustrated medical booklet containing rare common sense rules for health, which you cannot afford to be without, and some of the many thousands of gratifying letters from men and women in all walks of life, both old and young, who have been cured and benefited by the use of this great medicine and who continue to enjoy good health. Sold by druggists, grocers, dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

A LINIMENT FOR EXTERNAL USE.

Cheerfulness and a bright disposition during the months before baby comes, are among the greatest blessings a mother can bestow upon the little life about to begin. Her happiness and physical comfort will largely govern the proper development of the health and nature of the child. Mother's Friend contributes most to the mother's happiness and health by the relief and mental comfort it affords. It is a liniment composed of penetrating oils and medicines which lubricate the muscles and tendons of the body, soothe the swollen mammary glands, cause a gradual expansion of the skin and tissues, and aid in the relief of nausea. The regular use of Mother's Friend greatly lessens the pain and danger when baby comes, and assures a quick and natural recovery for the mother. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book, containing valuable information for expectant mothers.

SPRING SIGNS ON THE SKIN

Pimples, Itching Spots, Eruptions, Blisters, Fever Blisters.

The little blotches, itching spots, discolorations, pimples, fever blisters, etc., which appear on the skin at this time of the year indicate that the pores are overtaxed in their work of helping to renovate the system. A little possum applied as soon as these troubles show will cause them to quickly disappear, leaving the skin in perfect condition to perform its duties.

In skin troubles of every form, affecting both infants and adults, possum produces beneficial results from first application, stopping all itching at once. Eruptions, acne, herpes, tetter and similar diseases yield to it readily. Possum is non-grasy, flesh-colored, and cannot be detected in the daytime. When used for scaly scalp, dandruff, boils, sores, chafing, bites, etc., it drives away scum and cures rapidly.

Possum is on sale for 50c at The Owl Drug Co.'s Stores, as well as all drug stores. But a supply sufficient for most minor troubles, to clear the complexion overnight and rid the face of pimples, will be sent free of charge to any one who will write to The Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th St., New York City.

NEW ORLEANS LEADS TRUMPS.

State Assembly to Move to Washington in Body.

To Block San Francisco in Exposition Move.

Californians Reminded of Some Ancient History.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Full page advertisements in the local papers exploiting the advantage of New Orleans as an exposition city to the disadvantage of San Francisco, remind Californians that in 1884 New Orleans held an industrial and cotton centennial exposition for which Congress loaned it $1,000,000 which was never paid back. The government spent $300,000 installing its exhibit and later had to loan $300,000 to enable the exposition management to get gold and silver medals for foreign exhibitors. That also remains unpaid to this day. In face of such a record Californians fear little from New Orleans' appeal to sectional prejudice for support.

BATON ROUGE, La., May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The General Assembly of the State of Louisiana will adjourn next Tuesday afternoon and go to Washington in a body on a special train, in an effort to block San Francisco and to secure the Panama Exposition for New Orleans.

The step is practically decided upon. There are 115 members of the House, forty-one members of the Senate, together with the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the House, who will constitute the delegation.

TENTATIVE PROGRAMME.
The tentative programme as adopted tonight is for the ex-Governor to take a train for New Orleans next Tuesday, where a solid train of Pullmans will be made up. Leaving Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, for Washington, it is planned to arrive at the national capital early Thursday morning. Thursday and Friday are to be spent in Washington, leaving there at 11 o'clock that night for home.

It is a unique move, possibly never before having been executed in just this way—the locking up of a State Legislature bodily and carrying it to Washington to ask for a specific object.

The Panama Exposition Company will hear the expense of the trip—about $5000. One week of the Legislature will be sacrificed for the cause, and the session will work nights when they return.

Telegrams from Louisiana Congressmen today are most favorable for the New Orleans selection.

CITY ELECTION.
DRY PRECINCTS NOW VOTE WET.
PROHIBITIONISTS IN DENVER CARRY ONLY FOUR.

Union Water Company Franchise Is Voted Down—Scattering Returns Show That Democrats and Republicans Have Divided the Spoils About Evenly.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DENVER, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Denver has voted "wet" by a majority which will approximate 12,000. Returns from 250 precincts out of 310 show that the prohibitionists have thus far carried but four precincts. This includes returns from wards which two years ago voted dry.

The city has voted down the franchise sought by the Denver Union Water Company. Only 100 electors could vote on that proposition. One hundred and fifty precincts show 2520 majority against the franchise.

Votes on the initiative referendum and recall and the citizens' proposition for the purchase of the water plant, or the building of a new plant by the city, will probably not be counted before early morning on account of the size of the ballot.

Scattering returns from a few precincts throughout the city indicate that the Citizens have elected two out of the three supervisors and two of the sixteen Aldermen.

The Democrats have probably elected six Aldermen and the Republicans seven. The Citizens have probably elected two election commissioners, one a woman, Ellis Meredith, novelist, and the Republicans one commissioner.

HE LOST HIS PASSPORT.
Democratic Politician Is Rescued from Yokohama Jail by Arnold D. Patterson.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because he lost his passport, Thomas Fox, a well-known Democratic politician, spent three days in Yokohama, Japan, in the hands of the police authorities of that city, and was on the point of being consigned to jail as a political prisoner on the testimony of his suspicious appearance, when he was luckily identified and rescued by Arnold D. Patterson of this city.

The details of the affair were related in full in a recent issue of the Times. The unfortunate man was in a position where his political pull was null and void. He had laid down his passport somewhere and had forgotten it. When he was found to be without papers, the customshouse officials simply seized him.

TROOPS TO THE FRONTIER.
GUAYACIL, May 17.—More troops are being rushed to the frontier. An artillery brigade, splendidly equipped, left for Machala, in the southwestern part of Ecuador. Congress will meet in extraordinary session June 1 to deal with the trouble with Peru.

FOOLISH COMET FEARS.

Notwithstanding positive assurances from astronomers and scientists that there will be no disaster when the earth passes through the tail of the comet, there is great apprehension on the part of many people here and all over the country.

Many cautious mothers in this city will gather their broods in the house early tomorrow evening and close and lock all the windows and doors and stay out in the cracks to shut out the cyanogen gas. Larid publications here have devoted Sunday pages to pictures and descriptions of all mankind choking to death tomorrow, and these have frightened many persons.

ATMOSPHERE PROTECTS EARTH.
Professor McHugh of the De Pauw University is emphatic in minimizing the danger from the comet.

"There can be little doubt that the tail of the comet will sweep the earth," he said, "but none of the gases of the comet will come closer than forty-five miles to the surface of the earth. The atmosphere of the earth is so much denser than that of the comet's tail that it would repel it."

Lake mariners have been warned by government and local observers to hug shelter tomorrow, as it is admitted all instruments may be upset by electrical disturbances. The telegraph and telephone companies also admit they may have considerable trouble similar to that experienced during the "ground swell" and the vibrations of the aurora borealis. Many persons are anticipating brilliant meteoric displays while the earth is passing through the comet's tail. Nearly every one is expecting something unusual and many persons have made secret preparations for the end of the world.

CYANOGEN MISSING.
The inhabitants of the civilized world have never been worked up to such a point of feverish expectancy as they are at present. Even at the Yerkes Observatory today Prof. Frost admitted he had been extremely conservative in his forecasts and would not be surprised at anything that might occur. Prof. Barnard of Yerkes also admitted the possibility of a meteoric shower and spent part of the day in preparing the photographic instruments used to catch likenesses of meteorites.

That the gases of the comet's tail will have any effect on human life is the least probable of any of the results astronomers were today almost a unit in declaring. The cyanogen, whose presence in large quantities in the tail was noted some months ago and gave rise to the prediction that it might snuff out all life on earth, was undetectable in the last observations this morning.

LATEST NEWS.
CALCULATIONS ON THE COMET.
COMPUTATIONS AT UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

Transit Across Sun Will Not Be Observable in Any Part of the United States—Earth Begins Trip Through Tail at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BERKELEY, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Director Leuschner of the observatory of the University of California tonight made public the Halley's comet calculations, as computed by Prof. Crawford, assisted by W. F. Meyer. They show that the nearest approach of Venus took place on May 2 and the closest approach to the earth will occur May 18.

The comet will cross the sun three degrees of an arc above the sun's center from west to east. None of the transit will be visible in San Francisco or vicinity, as they will occur shortly after sunset, which takes place about 7:20 p.m., nor will the phenomena be observable in any part of the United States.

According to a photograph taken by Prof. Meyer here, on May 11, the tail of the comet was 2,600,000 miles in diameter from the nucleus at which the earth will cross it, but according to the Lick Observatory, the tail is rapidly diminishing. It is believed to have shrunk to about 1,900,000 miles, and through this the earth will pass. The passage will require about six hours, being approximately fifty miles a second.

The earth is expected to enter the tail about 5 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday and emerge at 11 o'clock on Thursday. The earth will not pass exactly through the center of the tail, but the deviation is so slight that it will not materially affect the duration of the transit through the tail.

It would be faintly discernible in the southwestern sky if the moon were not in the way.

The phenomena, according to Leuschner, will therefore pass entirely unnoticed by the people on the American continent, and it is doubtful whether the observers in the Orient, for whom the transit is theoretically visible, will actually discern the comet on the sun's disc.

NEGROES FEAR COMET.
Ignorant Class in Kentucky Refuses to Work, Expecting World to End, All-Night Services.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a brief fear of the coming of the comet many of the ignorant people of Central and Eastern Kentucky are making preparations for the end of the world and many of the farmers in these sections have even refused to put out any crops because they think that the end of the world is at hand.

In Lexington the negroes are tonight holding all-night services, praying and fasting to prepare themselves to receive the celestial visitor and meet their doom. For a week they have been holding "union services" and Tuesday they asked the afternoon papers to publish announcements of the all-night services and exhortations to the negroes to attend the meeting.

The sages of the colored race are predicting that all manner of dire calamities will result when the earth passes through the tail of the comet Wednesday and a dispatch from Somerset states that hot glass balls have been falling there.

EARTH IN COMET'S TAIL.

All state with one accord that probably nothing will occur in the United States which can be observed by the ordinary individual. When the head or nucleus of the great comet passes between the earth and sun it will be night time in all parts of the United States. The sun will be shining on the Pacific Ocean far out from the Coast. At Honolulu possibly something may be seen. The brightness of the sun may be dimmed.

All great astronomers and those who have carefully studied the composition of the head and tail of the comet by direct observation, photographic observation, and spectrum observation, state that the density of the tail is less than that of any vacuum which can be made on earth. The density of the tail near the head of the comet is far greater than some distant stars, and the more remote the less the density. The earth will pass through the tail about 15,000,000 miles from the head, so the quantity of solids or liquids and gases is as nothing compared with the density of the earth's atmosphere.

Director Hale of the Carnegie Solar Observatory at the summit of Mt. Wilson, over 6000 feet above sea level, yesterday issued an official statement regarding the comet, its proximity to the earth, and what is expected to occur. The sun is not likely to be seen, the preparations which have been made at the observatory for official observations relative to electrical disturbances, which follow.

VIEW COMET FROM BALLOON.
Prof. G. O. James of Washington University to Make Ascension Tonight at St. Louis.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] To see whatever it may be possible to see of the passage of Halley's comet across the sun's disc and of the attendant phenomena, Professor G. O. James of Washington University will make a balloon ascension in St. Louis, with Capt. John Berry as pilot, from the Aero Club's grounds tomorrow evening.

The Aero Club, through President Lambert, announced its readiness to send up a balloon for the purpose. Professor James hesitated to undertake the voyage because he doubted whether any observations of scientific value could be made from this part of the earth, but, after considering the matter, he decided to accept the proposal, on the possibility that something might occur to reward him.

The plan is to remain up until nearly 11 p.m., when the comet will have completed its passage from east to west, and to make the descent before midnight.

PRAYER AND LAMENTATIONS.
NEGROES FEAR THE COMET.

GALVESTON, Tex., May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Thousands of negroes, fearful that the end of the world will be produced by the comet striking the earth, are quitting their labor in Texas and gathering in churches and camp meetings. Many are flocking from the country to the small towns and in congregations devoting their time to prayer and lamentations.

At some of the meetings many refuse to eat until after the 18th has passed. Crops and business in many sections are actually suffering. Throughout the lumber camps in East Texas, where several thousand negroes are employed, where they have been found only negroes can do the work, labor is very scarce and about ten timber-cutters are actually suffering from lack of negroes. Up through the fruit belt and in the oil fields the negroes have left their work and gone to prayer meetings.

HYDE MUST STAY IN JAIL.
Statute Providing Appeal Makes Incarceration Necessary While Case Is Pending.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
KANSAS CITY, May 17.—If Dr. B. Clark Hyde's attorney carry his case to the Supreme Court, the physician will not have to go to State's prison, pending appeal of the higher tribunal. He must remain in jail here, however.

GRAND JURY REITS.
CHICAGO, May 17.—The special grand jury which returned three indictments in connection with alleged legislative bribery, today took a recess until next Tuesday. On this date the trial of Lee O'Neil Brown is expected to begin before Judge McQuinn.

The grand jury is charged with the duty of investigating and reporting to the grand jury the results of their investigation. The anti-foreign feeling is said to be increasing.

BISHOPS ELECTED.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 17.—Rev. W. R. Lambuth of Tennessee and Rev. E. D. Moulton and Rev. W. G. Waters of Virginia were elected bishops on the fourth ballot at the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, according to the announcement made at the conference today. On the sixth ballot, Rev. J. H. McCoy of Birmingham, Ala., was elected as the seventh bishop, filling the college of bishops.

COL. COPLEY OFFERS AID. Millions Willing to Contribute Big Sum to Assist Investigation of Lorimer's Election.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, May 17.—Col. Ira Copley, Ill., called upon State's Attorney William H. Ladd, and offered to contribute a large sum of money to assist Mr. Ladd in carrying on the investigation of the election of William Lorimer to the United States Senate.

Col. Copley went to the Criminal Court building, accompanied by Attorney Altschuler of Aurora, and Attorney Frank R. Field, representing Michael S. Link. They held a long conference with Mr. Ladd.

Wayman said: "Col. Copley was on the ground at Springfield when the Senatorial fight was on. He was interested in a certain extent, and stands ready and willing to give all the information at his command. He voluntarily offered to contribute a substantial amount of money to aid in clearing up the case."

WEDDING WAS SUBROSA. Auto Racer of Note Marries Lake County Belle at Redwood—Reasons for Secrecy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Clarence O. King, local automobile racer of some note, raced away to Redwood City, San Mateo county, on March 29 and secretly married Miss Irene Puett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Puett of Pinney, Lake county, according to news just coming from Lakeport, where the bride is well known.

The reason for keeping the wedding information from Lakeport, is because Miss Puett was taking a training course to become a nurse in the Vista Hospital, at San Francisco, and dared not let her marriage be given publicity until she graduated. The secret was maintained about the husband, but leaked out in the bride's home town.

Efforts were made here by King's relatives to suppress the news. He has been supposed to be unmarried.

MAY 18, 1910—[PART I] 13

A dark, vertical, textured image, possibly a book cover or a close-up of a material with a fine, repeating pattern. The texture is highly detailed, showing vertical ridges and grooves, suggesting a woven fabric or a specific type of paper. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows, emphasizing the tactile quality of the surface. The overall color palette is monochromatic, ranging from deep blacks to light grays.

PERJURY TRIAL OPENS. THE INFERIOR COURTS. TWO BEERS HAVE AN ODD EFFECT. IMBIBER SEES STARS IN OTHER MAN'S HOUSE.

Alleged Embezzling Postoffice Clerk is Arraigned in the United States District Court. Orlando F. Altore, alleged embezzling Postoffice clerk and perjurer, was placed on trial in the United States District Court, yesterday. A full panel of jurymen was not secured until late in the afternoon. The regular list being exhausted, Deputy United States Marshal Franklin was sent out to secure additional talesmen. He found considerable difficulty in serving summonses as nearly every person he tackled declared he did not own property in the county. Altore, alias Orator W. Smith, charged with making false statements in an application to take a civil service examination. As all such statements are sworn to, any falsehood constitutes perjury. The defendant is a negro. His reputed mother, Mrs. Annie White, and his supposed sweetheart, Miss Angie Smith were in court. He was represented by attorneys Fred Thompson and Tom Johnson. The government began its case, but little progress was made in the afternoon. Assistant U. S. Dist. Atty. Horton and Stewart are handling the prosecution.

Revolver Shot Causes Quick Surrender and Also Attracts Neighbors Who Forget Prisoner Until He Demands Action—Has Microscopic Weapon, But Goes Free. A weird story dealing with stars and comets was told by John Lyons in Justice Williams' Police Court yesterday morning. The police didn't know what to charge Lyons with. Burglary was thought at first to be suitable, but a complaint was filed charging him with carrying a concealed weapon. Lyons, according to his own statement, made a mistake late Monday night when he imbibed too freely. He declared that he drank only two glasses of beer but they had a startling effect upon him and he saw stars, comets and other things, but he didn't remember where he lived.

His home is at No. 946 West Washington street. After wandering about for several hours Lyon picked out a house at No. 1206 West Sixth street for his own. He entered the place determined to find solace in sleep. He began to collide with strange articles of furniture. He stumbled over beds, chairs and brick-bats, fell downstairs and did other gymnastic stunts until W. P. Henly, the owner, was aroused. The first intimation Lyons had that something was wrong was a shot in his direction. He yelled and submitted to capture. By that time many neighbors were present and they assisted in guarding the prisoner until the police arrived—nearly an hour.

The neighbors were grumbling about Lyons until they noticed the comet and then all attention was turned upon the heavenly tramp and Lyons was permitted to remain unnoticed on the curb until he demanded that he be locked up or sent home. It was found that the prisoner was armed, but the revolver was little more than a toy. In view of the fact that they had seen the comet and were in a good humor about the affair, the witnesses were not inclined to be vindictive and when sentence in the case of Lyons was suspended, the verdict seemed to be popular.

Use Loaded Dice. Moses Staple and Clarence Moore, manipulators of loaded dice, were fined $15 each by Justice Williams yesterday. The men were arrested at the Simons brickyard after they had cleaned out a number of workmen. The dice were loaded so that it was almost impossible for the owners to lose. They were arrested on gambling charges.

Couldn't Stay Away. Samuel Wilson, a crippled beggar who was arrested some weeks on a vagrancy charge and was sentenced to 180 days in jail, will have to serve that sentence. Wilson served thirty days of his term and on his plea that he would leave Los Angeles at once and never return, sentence was suspended and he was told to get out. He remained away for two or three weeks, but returned and was arrested. Wilson was ordered locked up in the City Jail yesterday to serve out his sentence.

Forgery Complaint. Detective George Home yesterday swore to a complaint in Police Court charging H. D. Allen with forgery. Allen was arrested in San Diego several days ago and the officer went south for his man last night. Allen was a guest at the Hotel Leighton and when the time came for his departure, it was alleged he forged and cashed a check for $10 using a part of the money to pay the last day's bill.

LOWER COURT'S FINDING STANDS. The Second District Court of Appeal affirmed the judgment of the lower court, yesterday, in the case of the Sirch Electrical and Testing Laboratories against P. A. Garbutt. The defendant made a contract with the plaintiff for the installation of electrical equipment in his yacht. The evidence showed he made complaint several times about the manner in which the work was done, but he made several payments on account. The plaintiff sued to recover the alleged balance due. The judgment in the trial court was for the plaintiffs for costs; on a counter-claim brought by the defendant, the court found also in favor of the plaintiff. The Appellate Court states there is no good reason for disturbing the judgment of the lower court.

LONG TIME FOR TIMER. Charles Young will serve seventy-five days in the County Jail for having stolen a watch from E. R. Belknap, a veteran. Young was a guard at the Soldiers' Home and took the timepiece while Belknap was asleep. He pawned the piece of jewelry in this city. Young was found guilty on a charge of petty larceny by Justice Ling yesterday. He was given the alternative of paying a fine of $75 or going to jail. He was unable to meet the assessment.

SECOND LADIES' NIGHT. Knights of Columbus will have their second ladies' night at the clubhouse. Twenty-second and Figueroa streets, Friday evening. The young men's Glee Club will give a part of the entertainment. Prof. Lewis Kerwin's orchestra will furnish the music, both for singing and dancing. For those who do not dance, progressive whist has been arranged.

If You Want to Go East C. Haydock. Agent Illinois Central R.R. 113 West Sixth.

Your Own Business. "Absolute Privacy Assured" The Automatic Telephone has no listening ears—no curiosity—no retaining memory. Your business is and remains strictly yours over Automatic lines. Isn't that worth something?—Long Distance, too.

Arnold is a Director. Ralph Arnold lately in charge of the petroleum investigations in California, was formally elected a director of the Midway Union Oil Company at a meeting of the board on Saturday. As soon as he returns from Washington, where he went as a member of the delegation of California oil men, Mr. Arnold will begin active development of the Midway Union property in the Midway and San Emidio fields.

Kern River Well. The Merchants' and Bankers' well No. 1, Kern River, which came in last week, went through 130 feet of pay sand and is a 60-barrel producer. The Standard Oil experts value a well in this district at $500 a barrel; hence, if their figures it is worth $25,000; the people who own it, however, think that it is worth more than that to themselves.

DR. LUM WING YUE HAS CURED THOUSANDS WITH THE NATIVE CHINESE HERBS

Dr. Lum has had a successful record of thirty-five years in San Francisco—he now resides here because of family ties. After first ascertaining the cause of disease by the infallible pulse method of diagnosis, Dr. Lum correctly prescribes the proper Chinese herbs that inevitably result in a permanent cure. All forms of stomach trouble, rheumatism, catarrh, female complaints and all chronic diseases yield permanently to the Doctor's soothing, blood-building herbs. Dr. Lum has known no failures in diagnosis. He first correctly finds the cause of disease and is then in a position to give careful correct treatment. Come and investigate our record of results. Consultation and pulse diagnosis free.

If your stomach does not crave for food—good wholesome food, the kind that builds strong healthy bodies—take nature's warning of dyspepsia and regain at once the powers of good digestion that are so essential to health.

Pabst Extract The Best Tonic

relieves dyspepsia—and prevents it. Being a liquid food in pre-digested form, it furnishes nutrition without making any demand on the stomach for extra work. While it is creating a natural desire for solid foods, it furnishes the power for their digestion.

The United States Government specifically classifies Pabst Extract as an article of medicine—not an alcoholic beverage.

Order a dozen bottles from your local druggist. Insure upon it being Pabst.

Theater a new play, entitled "The City That David Built." It is not a Biblical play by any means, although at first the title suggests this. The play is by R. L. Madden. It will have New York production by Cohan & Harris in the fall and will be seen locally, at the Belasco, the early part of July. The scenes of the play are located in a village at the foot of the Catalina Mountains.

Hydegrade Galateas
For Sturdy Wear 18c Yd.

Fortunately for the comfort of little tots, mothers have come to see the sound common sense and economy in rompers, overalls and jumpers, and Hydegrade Galateas is the material they go back for and re-order for the second, third and fourth suit, until it is time to buy four yards instead of two and a half, for a "Russian suit," or "sailor," or "little girl's frock."

When still a few more years have gone by, Hydegrade Galateas prove every bit as desirable and sensible for school boys and girls as for their baby brothers and sisters, and many a stylishly dressed little miss in her teens, who is secretly cherishing hopes of doing up her braids, is gratified when her Hydegrade Galateas dress is envied by the other girls.

Hydegrade Galateas may be had in fifteen different colors and two hundred combinations of colors at 18c Yd.

TEMPORARY END OF SAD TRIAL.

ATTORNEY FOR DEFENDANT NOW IN A HOSPITAL.

Complaining Witness Charges Efforts Have Been Made to Intimidate Her; Former Actor, Charged With Embezzlement, Has Varied Wardrobe.

The trial of John S. Donovan, alias "Jack" Sheridan, for embezzling $2100 from Mrs. S. A. Brooks, came to an abrupt temporary end in Judge Davis' court yesterday afternoon. When it was announced that the attorney for the defendant, Joseph Seymour, was sick and would be unable to proceed with the trial, Dr. Fred C. Shurtliff furnished a certificate that Seymour was suffering from a nervous attack and it was necessary for him to take a rest at a local hospital. The case then went over until this morning, and it is expected that Seymour will be able to proceed with the trial.

Before the opening of the trial, Mrs. Brooks made a statement to the court that she had been threatened and harassed by certain persons presumably in the interest of Donovan, and that her telephone had been used by some woman whose voice she did not recognize telling her that if she did not recognize the money to Donovan that his attorney would "rip her up the back."

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of San Diego, who said she knew the Donovans, was pointed out in the audience as one of the women who called upon her, and it was shown that she had called in company with Mrs. Brooks upon Donovan in the County Jail. Mrs. Donovan took the stand and denied that she had called upon Mrs. Brooks by telephone. Mrs. Brooks testified that she had been asked to call upon Mr. Seymour, but she had refused to do so. Seymour in cross-examination showed that he had talked with the witness at the trial once since the beginning of the trial.

When Mrs. Brooks finally testified, the story of the loss of the money was repeated with but little variation from the recently published reports. The witness was very backward in telling of a visit she had made in company with Donovan the night he secured the money, to an unknown friend residing at No. 1867 Windsor street. Mrs. Brooks refused to give the name of the party, but on the ruling of the court was compelled to tell the number and the street where they went. She said she had promised her friend that she would not bring into the trial the name of the party.

It also developed that the night Donovan secured possession of the Brooks bank roll, he slipped a note under her door at the Alexandria Hotel, the instrument reciting that John S. Sheridan would pay Mrs. S. A. Brooks the sum of $2100, within ninety days, at the rate of 6 per cent. The witness said the finding of the note made her very nervous, and she called the hall-man at the Alexandria Hotel, Walter F. Heister, and showed him the note. The latter corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Brooks in this regard.

The witness said that long before Donovan secured the money as it fell out of her hand-bag in the parlor of the Alexandria, she had made up her mind to not embark in the motion picture enterprise at Sacramento.

It was also shown that Mrs. Brooks was not until he refused to return it. Donovan at a later date, while the complaining witness and dressed in another new suit of clothes, indicated his displeasure on account of some of the testimony in a manner that visibly perturbed Mrs. Brooks.

Donovan evidently had on hand a large selection of clothes for his customers. His wife, wearing a swaggar outfit, sat near him, and they both looked as if the moving picture business was a good thing. It was shown in the evidence that the day the Donovans were "pinched" at the Arcade station, that Mrs. Donovan had in her possession $2000 of the money her husband had secured from Mrs. Brooks.

Mrs. Mary E. Smith, the mutual friend, sat in the rear of the courtroom, and beamed upon the defendant and his wife from behind a pair of gold-rimmed glasses in a most motherly way.

How Famous Painting, "The Horse Fair," by Rosa Bonheur, Was Torn by Workmen.

An interesting sidelight in the history of the famous painting, "The Horse Fair," by Rosa Bonheur, was offered yesterday by Fred Wood, clerk at the Hayward.

His stepfather, George Soule of Salt Lake City, reading of the picture which is given with the Times, desired a copy and wrote asking Wood to secure it for him. In the letter embodying the request Soule stated that: "It has a peculiar interest for me."

"While in the employ of one of the great ship companies of London, we were requested for packing and shipment, the original picture of Rosa Bonheur had been on exhibition in the art gallery of London and was to be sent to Sydney, Australia, for a special exhibit. Having charge of this department I was eager that the work should be well done and superintended arrangements. While placing the picture in the large case that had been especially built for it, one of the men allowed a screwdriver to slip and it pierced the canvas, making a ragged jag in one of the corners."

"It became necessary to notify the artist and after a few days the picture was shipped to Paris in great haste and there, Artist Bonheur carefully remedied the accident, so that today there are few if any people who view the great painting, who know of the accident."

"BAD MAN" IS "MADE GOOD."

San Fernando Ranchman Has District Bluffed.

Gets to Be Real Meek When Deputies Show Up.

Pours Out Liquor and Gives Up His Arsenal.

To punish William Rapp, a ranchman residing three miles south of San Fernando, for having made his wife and children sleep in an orchard and having terrorized the neighborhood, Deputy Sheriff Wright and Lips yesterday compelled him to pour out his entire supply of liquor and then go home with a minister.

They transformed him from a bad man, who thrived for blood and rode about with a small arsenal attached to him, into a meek person who was willing to do whatever they might direct.

The Rapp family has had much trouble recently. Last week the father swore to a complaint charging Clarence Waite with having committed a statutory offense on his 15-year-old daughter, Mary. Monday the girl and her mother visited the office of the District Attorney in connection with the prosecution. When they returned home, they declare, Rapp was deep in his cups and in a quarrelsome mood.

According to the story Mary and two younger children told the officers, he placed a gun at their mother's head and told her he would kill her if she did not leave the house. In fear, she fled, taking the children with her.

SHIVER IN ORCHARD.

They remained in an orchard near by all night, shivering and fearing that he might do them harm. They declared that they did not dare go to the house of neighbors, because such action might have drawn their friends into the trouble.

The persons residing in the vicinity of the Rapp home say they are afraid of Rapp when he is drinking. He has always kept his residence well supplied with firearms.

After the members of his family had left the house, Rapp mounted a horse and throughout the night kept a vigil. As he resides on the top of a hill, he had an opportunity to survey the surrounding country. About 4 o'clock, Mrs. Rapp notified one of the neighbors of her trouble.

Half a dozen persons, including the minister from San Fernando, decided to take action. They did not go near enough the ranch to be within range of any bullet which might be sent their way.

HOLD COUNCIL OF WAR.

After a council of war, they decided to telephone the Sheriff's office for assistance. Deputies Lips and Wright went in the District Attorney's automobile to Pacoima, where they met the party of peace makers. After learning the situation, they went to the Rapp ranch. He made no resistance, when they disclosed their identity, and dismounted.

They found a large revolver in his pocket. In the house they found a quantity of liquor. As they had no warrant, they thought the best plan of procedure was to compel him to break the bottles. The minister joined in emptying the liquor. Rapp uncovered several guns of various description.

Life agreed to go home with the minister and behave himself. If he keeps his word, it is likely that there will be no prosecution.

ARE YOU "A BUNDLE OF NERVES?"

The danger of kidney sickness is that often it runs down to the verge of collapse before you know what really is the matter.

If you are always tired, worried weak, nervous, and suffer at the same time distressing urinary disorders, and backache, don't lose sight of the probable cause—sick kidneys.

No other trouble wears more on the nerves than kidney sickness, for the blood may be full of uric acid poison, the efforts of which are extremely irritating to the brain and nerves. Many a case of nervous collapse could be traced right back to kidney trouble.

When you are unable to pin your mind to any task, your back aches and it is so lame that you cannot do an ordinary day's work, it is time to give serious thought to this question: "Are my kidneys working right?"

The answer is in your condition.

Sick kidneys congested by a cold or some other unseen cause, slacken their filtering work. Uric acid circulates freely with the blood, attacking brain, nerves, muscles, joints and vital organs. Headaches, dizzy spells

Mrs. Gabriel Gosselin, 1313 E. Thirtieth street, Los Angeles, Cal., says: "I am still a strong advocate of Doan's Kidney Pills and can say that the cure they effected in my case several years ago has proven permanent. In 1902 I gave a statement for publication recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and I now gladly confirm all I then said. I suffered severely from pain in the small of my back which often extended into my head. The kidney secretions were too frequent and profuse in passage and contained a sediment. In ten days after beginning the use of Doan's Kidney Pills all my troubles had ceased and I felt better in every way. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a number of persons whom I have heard complaining of kidney trouble and I know that good results have been received from their use."

SAN BERNARDINO FETE.

the westward, he cast his eyes about in search of the most slightly spot upon which to erect the cross and build an altar. The site finally selected was upon the brow of a hill, which today lies almost within the corporate limits of the city of San Bernardino, and from which can be seen the most beautiful and fertile valley in all California, spreading as it does from the snow-capped peaks on the east almost to the sea on the south and west. Standing as this city does, upon practically the spot selected by the saintly father, it is but fitting and appropriate that San Bernardino should be selected as the point at which to hold a celebration of this character, and now that your committees have finished their work; now that the curtain is about to be raised and our people carried back to the scenes of one hundred years ago, as Mayor of the city of San Bernardino, it does me great honor and affords me extreme pleasure at this time to invite you and the Centennial Committee, and to our loyal citizens, and to the strangers within our gates, the freedom of the city. To at the same time express to you the sincere hope and belief that this will prove the most successful event of the kind ever held in Southern California, and that, while furnishing entertainment, amusement and instruction to thousands, it may also result in a closer friendship, a deeper feeling of neighborly love, and a greater interest in each other's welfare between San Bernardino and her sister cities of this great valley.

"Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, for the remainder of the week the city is yours."

President R. E. Swing accepted the freedom of the city on behalf of the Centennial Association, saying:

"Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen: Today, tomorrow and next day we will stand at the close of a century looking backward. Our eyes focused upon the 25th day of the fifth month of the year 1810. On the western horizon a little band of missionaries, dusty, tired, care-worn and foot-sore, but not discouraged, for at their head stands Father Dumetz holding aloft, before him, the holy cross, conveying to a pagan race Christianity and civilization. On the same day, before the last rays of the setting sun has ceased to glisten upon the snow-capped peak of the great mountain on the east, these same holy fathers have planted the cross and built the missions that even the heathen Indian might be taught to bow down and worship the Lord. It was not for gain or glory that these Christians tramped the burning sand and faced the blighting storms, but for their church and that the light of Christianity might dawn in the soul of every being.

oration of that event which marked the advent of civilization in this great valley."

"On Friday, next, at 11:30 a.m., we will stand upon the heights of Paltana, and, with bared heads, hear the bishop again concentrate the little capilla, which will then be erected in honor of the memory of that holy man who first dared to raise eyes to heaven and call for the divine blessing to fall upon all being then within the valley."

"More than a century prior to the appearance of these holy padres, so the legend goes, this beautiful valley of Guachama was ruled by Spirit Princess, who, by the touch of her fairy finger, could cure the sick, a scowl dispersed an enemy, and whose smile encouraged the local tribes in their battles against the more sturdy redman of the East, whose displeasure not even the High Chief dared provoke. So, again, will that Spirit Princess return, incarnate in the form of a beautiful maiden, to reign while this celebration is in progress—with the blooming of the century plant she comes, and as its petals fall and lie goes out, she vanishes.

"Therefore, in accepting from you, Mr. Mayor, the reins of government and the freedom of this city, I shall pass the authority thus vested in me to the little Spirit Princess, who will reign apparent from front, you wigwam with her eyes ever turned to that mysterious mountain, with its arrow pointing to the healing waters beneath the Princess's Lena—who is now embued with that legend spirit, and who, with her scepter, will cause to pass before you the history of one hundred years. Each pageant will mark an epoch, each night a new generation. The people of this valley from the earliest to the child of today, she will cause to come, in spirit form, bow and pass on to eternity. And when the last chime of the hour of midnight has echoed through this valley, when the scepter of authority fades and the little Princess is no more, there will yet remain the pleasant memory of that which was—but which we shall never see again."

Rev. Mark E. Shaw then invoked a divine blessing upon San Bernardino and the celebration.

Following the blessing by Dr. Shaw, President Swing, in formally declaring the centennial open, said:

"Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen: I, by virtue of the authority vested in me, now proclaim and declare that the San Bernardino Valley Centennial is open and, during the reign of the great mountain on the east, these same holy fathers have planted the cross and built the missions that even the heathen Indian might be taught to bow down and worship the Lord. It was not for gain or glory that these Christians tramped the burning sand and faced the blighting storms, but for their church and that the light of Christianity might dawn in the soul of every being.

"Little did those holy men think, when they laid the first adobe in the foundation of that little chapel on the heights of Paltana, that from that little chapel would radiate sparks of civilization that would aid in the enlightenment of the entire Pacific Coast."

"Today, as we look backward, we cannot see and do not feel the hardships endured by those devout men, nor do we realize the dangers encountered, but, as we look, we see only the result of their self-sacrificing efforts. From one end of California to the other, these holy men planted the cross and built the missions that even the heathen Indian might be taught to bow down and worship the Lord. It was not for gain or glory that these Christians tramped the burning sand and faced the blighting storms, but for their church and that the light of Christianity might dawn in the soul of every being.

The log cabin is a reproduction of one of the buildings first constructed in the valley from pine logs. It contains many of the relics and souvenirs of early days, household articles that made the journey across the plains and tattered flags that went through the early battles. Skins of wild animals are stretched on the cabin door and hung on the walls within. Close by is the wigwam where visitors are registered. The register of guests at the centennial will be sealed and put away for 100 years to be opened at that time. An orchestra played old-time melodies and there were brief addresses by a number of the old-timers. The San Bernardino centennial has not depended upon the younger and more active men entirely, the Pioneers Society, not only had a great deal to do with it but raised a large part of the fund and contributed actively to every part of it. One of the successful features of the celebration is its adequacy in finance.

NEW MANUFACTURING PLANT.

Hundred Thousand Dollars to Be Invested in Site and Building by Upholstery Concern.

Architects R. B. Young & Son have begun plans for a four-story class A fireproof manufacturing plant which the Stockwell-Haley Company, manufacturers of upholstery and bedding, will build on a site fronting 304 feet on Alameda, 80 feet on Fourth and 200 feet on Seaton street. Until the completion of the new plant the company will continue to occupy its present quarters at Nos. 945-949 South Los Angeles street.

The factory now planned will represent with its site an investment of about $100,000. The building will be of reinforced concrete and brick and faced with red brick. The first floor will be used for the warehouse and shipping department, the second for offices and storerooms, the third for light storeroom and factory purposes, and the fourth will be devoted entirely to factory uses. Each floor will be divided into three parts by fireproof partitions. The equipment will be of the most modern character throughout. A railroad switch will extend across the Alameda street front.

The same architects are preparing designs for the complete alteration of "El Defiance," the home of W. D. Woolwine in East Los Angeles. In all about $50,000 will be expended in the improvement of this beautiful residence.

MEETS SON UNDER ARREST.

H. D. Allen, the young man who was arrested in San Diego on a complaint charging him with having defrauded the Leighton Hotel, in this city, out of $25 by means of a worthless check, was brought back yesterday evening by Detective George Brown of the Los Angeles police force. Allen was arrested at the Pickwick theater, where he was working as the leader of the Hungarian orchestra, composed of women musicians. He was met at the Arcade Station by his mother and accompanied by the detective, rode with her to the Police Station in an automobile. The parting between mother and son at the jail door was an exceedingly sad spectacle.

In dissolving an injunction restraining the police from closing the Pickwick Theater, Judge Scanlon of Chicago yesterday held that the musical farce which has been on at the Pickwick is not immoral. Club women took the initiative in seeking to have the play ousted.

NEWER POST OFFICE.

work of the various branches of the government located here requires ample space. The customs and internal revenue departments alone will require a large part of the new building in a few years.

The building, which will be occupied by September 1, is not ideal quarters for the postoffice. The Washington officials realize this fact and insist that a special building be provided for this branch of the service.

The only delay now anticipated is incident to waiting to see where the union station will be located. When the site is decided upon, then it will be time for the Postmaster-General to secure a nearby location for the postoffice. As it generally takes from three to four years to secure a site and put up a building, the postal authorities realize that steps must be taken as soon as possible to plan for the post-office.

IN OTHER CITIES ALSO.

Los Angeles will not be the only city to enjoy a magnificent new postoffice. It is said the same policy will be followed in all the large cities of the country as funds become available. Experience has taught the heads of the department that the post-offices are far more efficient when located in buildings that are not utilized for offices and courtrooms.

The new postoffice is a large in ground space. The actual working quarters should be located on one floor. The modern system of facilitating delivery requires a different sort of a building than is usually erected for the double purpose of providing a lot of offices, as well as quarters for the postal department.

The building at North Main and simple streets will do very well for a few years, but it will be too small after a time. It will also be too far from the union station, if the latter is brought at any one of the localities tentatively suggested. In the rapid changes now going on in the Postal Department, a building, modern today, becomes almost obsolete in a few years.

Postmaster Harrison admitted yesterday that there was some talk of an entirely new postoffice, which would be erected close to the projected union station. He said it was generally understood that the policy of the department is to house its postoffices in buildings devoted exclusively to that work, and especially constructed for rapid and easy handling of mail.

While the present new building will be adequate for several years, he said a main office situated near by the railroad station will be eventually developed upon. He would not hazard any prediction as to when this will be accomplished, but remarked that the service today is a wonderful improvement over the past.

When the Federal officials move into the new building, the first step toward bringing the offices together will have been taken. At the present time the government is paying about $30,000 for the use of the building which is saved as soon as the new building is occupied.

THE OIL BOOK
An Authority on California Oil—Free Copy Upon Request

It's just what you want, because it tells you what you want to know—all about this great industry and what is going on all the time in the various oil fields.

If you are interested in any oil company you can learn of its progress in The Oil Book. If you are thinking of making investment in oil shares The Oil Book is invaluable because it will show you how to decide in regard to whether or not the property is in a proven oil district; helps you to decide which is the best stock from an investment standpoint—production, safety, interest returns. Helps you to safeguard your investment by proper knowledge.

The history of the profits made in oil stock investments is scarcely credible without reading the facts given from time to time in The Oil Book. At various times it has shown how a thousand dollars invested in this way is now earning for the investor more than the original sum in dividends each year and would now sell for many times the amount of the original investment.

The Oil Book is devoted entirely to the oil industry and has advanced information of the important developments and transactions. The latest of these is that the Independent Producers' Transportation Company will parallel its recently completed pipeline, and has already placed contracts for over $2,000,000 worth of pipe. That the great Doheny-Candlish Companies, comprising the American Oilfields, Ltd., the American Petroleum and Nevada Petroleum Companies, are to join the Producers' Agency and that the Agency has closed an immense contract with the Great Northern Railway (the James J. Hill line) for fuel oil for that great system.

Send for the issue of May 16th and read the article from the Illustrated London News of what the use of fuel oil means to the English navy. Or how the adoption of oil for fuel on the new steamship of the Cunard line would save $60,000 each round trip.

Read the splendid article on "How the Independent Producers brought their oil to tidewater," by the well-known author, Hamilton Wright, handsomely illustrated and showing the route of the pipeline.

For months past The Oil Book has been foretelling the great future of the California oil industry. Has pointed out how practically the whole world was turning to California for fuel oil. Many of our readers have availed themselves of our knowledge of the investment value of stocks and have made splendid profits. We pointed out the opportunities and will continue to do so, for there will be many more.

Among the numerous matters of interest in the issue of May 16th will be found items of news regarding the following companies: Homblu, American Oilfields, Hale-McLeod, Eagle Creek, California Midway, Mays, Yellowstone, One-Eleven, La Biane, Muscatine, M. & M., Ethel D., Azores, Traders, Valley, Seneca, Coalinga, Consolidated, Income, Blair, Coalinga Security, Coalinga Unity, Bohemian, Best Yet, Pacific States, Red Top, Lucile, Blue Moon, British Consolidated, Turner, Boychester, Good Luck, Coalinga National, Spinks Crude, Big Sespe, Santa Paula, Rock Island, Crown, Long Beach, Middle Sespe, Little Sespe, Montebello, Lapp-Gifford, Canadian Queen, Forest City National, Dixie National, Mutual, Bard, Ojai, Hill Top, Liberty, Thanksgiving, Standard, Union, Pyramid, Big Indian, Thirty-Three, Kern-American, Jewell, Traffic, Wilbert, Palmer, Summit, Palmer, Jr., Brookshire, Orcut, Graciosa, Los Alamos Petroleum, Alliance, New Pennsylvania, Dome, Coblenz, Santa Fe, Central, Puente, Columbia, Fullerton, Fullerton Consolidated, Brea Canyon, Amalgamated, Industrial, Graham & Loftus and others.

Every one reads newspapers nowadays to know what is going on in the world. If you want to know what is going on in the "oil world" of California, read The Oil Book and get the inside facts of the marvelous growth and profits of this giant industry. Fill out the coupon and mail it today.

ILLINOIS CRUDE OIL CO.

Capitalization 200,000 shares. Par value $1.00.

One of the most consistent producers in the Kern field. Has already produced over 1,300,000 barrels. Is paying regular monthly dividends of one per cent. on the par value of the shares, equal to almost twenty-four per cent. per year on the present price of the stock.

Has been one of the most profitable investments of any of the moderate priced stocks, and will continue to be. Further detailed information gladly furnished.

LINCOLN MORTGAGE & LOAN CO.

S. W. & B. Oil Co.

Capitalization 400,000 shares. Par value $1.00.

40 acres in the heart of the Coalinga field. Production about 18,000 barrels per month and earning for the company 2 per cent. monthly on par.

Six wells producing and development being carried forward vigorously.

This company paid over $40,000 in dividends from only four wells. Dividends will soon be resumed.

We believe this stock will advance in price 50 per cent. within 3 months. Details mailed upon request.

LINCOLN MORTGAGE & LOAN COMPANY

Mascot Oil Co.

Capitalization 1,000,000 shares. Par value $1.00.

160 acres in the great Midway field.

In the section adjoining the Standard's gushers.

Production 80,000 barrels per month.

Twenty-four wells producing and arrangements made for drilling 12 more.

Dividend rate one per cent. per month on par and will soon be increased to two per cent.—probably three per cent.—possibly four per cent. Full particulars upon request.

LINCOLN MORTGAGE & LOAN COMPANY

Yellowstone Oil Co.

Capitalization 1,000,000 shares. Par value $1.00.

Owns 20 acres in the Kern field, the production from which is setting the company over a per cent. annually on the entire capitalization.

Owns 45 acres in the McKittick field and the Sunset field, only two miles from the great Lakeview gusher. Two wells are being drilled on this latter property with excellent indications of reaching the rich sand. If large wells are developed the 160 acres will be immediately profitable and the price of the stock reach a high level. It is expected that the company will go on a basis very soon. Send for further particulars.

An effort was made in the justice's court here today to upset the dog ordnance, which makes it a misdemeanor for a dog owner not to take out of his house, but failed.

Woodmen of the World will either here tomorrow to hold their district convention. At least 200 are expected and the city has taken on a gala appearance in anticipation. The meeting will last three days and the Woodmen will be entertained with dancing, picnics and barbecues.

RECONCILIATION EXPECTED.
Children of John P. Cudahy and Wife May Bring Their Parents Together Again.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
KANSAS CITY, (Mo.) May 17.— [Exclusive Dispatch.] Through the four Cudahy children, friends of the family say a reconciliation may soon be effected between John P. Cudahy and Mrs. Cudahy.

They have not met or spoken since the night Cudahy attacked Jere Little in the Cudahy home. By agreement of the parents, the children, who are living with Mrs. Cudahy at the family home, No. 3600 Walnut street, meet their father several times a week at the Hotel Baltimore and have luncheon with him.

Mrs. Cudahy has taken them home several times in his motor car but he never enters the house. He communicates with Mrs. Cudahy through the children.

HOSPITAL CASE VERDICT.

the law. That is the law in such cases," answered the coroner.
Dr. Amos Alexander Barkley, a brother of Mrs. Shopbell, who has lately arrived in this city from Oklahoma was called to testify. "I held his sister had been advised by phys-cians that she might have to undergo an operation, and said he had her taken to the hospital, intending to later put her under an anesthetic to give her a thorough examination. He did not admit knowing much about the cause of her illness. At this point Juror Stanford D. Parker of the Los Angeles Wholesalers' Board of Trade, asked a series of questions which shed valuable light on the condition of Mrs.
Shopbell. He brought out the fact that her peculiar trouble would cause her to have a tendency to become frighted, especially if in pain, and allowed the fact to be noted that some doctor had diagnosed the case prior to her entry into the hospital.

Dr. Pahl was asked to tell whether the lights were turned out in the hospital at a certain time. He said "No," and mentioned that lights were kept on when needed.

VOLUNTEER WITNESS HEARD.
J. E. Whitcomb, No. 449 West Servith, a volunteer witness, said that he and his wife were in a confectionery store directly opposite the hospital last Friday night about 8:30 o'clock. The storekeeper called his attention to the fact that the Good Samaritan Hospital showed no sign of a light.

Pahl laughed nervously and volunteered the remark that he was glad to know that his nurses obeyed his orders and kept the blinds pulled down.
Henrietta Griffith, the day nurse on duty, said that the first and last time she had seen Mrs. Shopbell was about 8:45 o'clock Friday evening. "I asked her if she was a patient. She told me 'yes' and said she wanted a sponge bath at 8:30 that night. I told her she would get it. The next thing I heard was when some one told me she had fallen out of her window," said Miss Griffith. She answered questions and said she thinks the room was left lighted.

Edna Heddenberg, nurse, said that Mrs. Shopbell was given the liberty of the floor and seemed cheerful but quiet. Miss Heddenberg offered a different explanation of the darkened hospital. Dr. Pahl appeared embarrassed when the young woman brought up the fact that the wards and certain parts are darkened at about the time when Whitcomb noticed the darkness. The "lights out" effect is a signal that visitors cannot remain longer.

FINDING AT AUTOPSY.
Dr. Geo. W. Campbell, autopsy surgeon, testified that he had examined the body of Mrs. Shopbell. He told of three horizontal scratches on her neck, which ran around from under one ear.
He said he found discolorations on the right and left side of her chest, both elbows were fractured, and her heart showed signs of a severe shock, such as would be occasioned by a heavy fall.
He described in detail the condition of her internal organs and said that in all but one exception they were healthy. From his discourse it was gathered that he did not believe that disease would have killed Mrs. Shop-bell. He answered a juror's question by saying that the nature of her sickness might make her melancholy and nervous.

When the jury went out to deliberate

Dr. P. C. H. Pahl,

assistant manager of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, who had an exciting day yesterday, and who will be arranged this morning on a charge of having assaulted W. A. Hughes, a Times photographer. It was after Hughes snapped the above picture at the Shopbell inquest that Pahl went after him with a heavy metal automobile crank.

Dr. Pahl got himself in trouble which resulted in his arrest.

He passed by several newspaper men and without being accosted declared in effect that the world would be better off without them. He went around the corner and started to crank his automobile. Miss Griffith and Miss Heddenberg met him there.

W. A. Hughes, a photographer of The Times, wandered around the corner and snapped a picture of the hospital manager. Pahl seized the heavy metal auto crank and hiding it behind his body, walked toward the photographer. Suddenly he made a wild rush and swung the weapon in the air as the camera man ran several yards, closely pressed by his powerful assailant. Pahl was within reach of his intended victim and had swung around with the weapon aimed at Hughes's head when Edna Heddenberg, a reporter for the Record, caught his arm for a second.

The heavy crank was stopped for an instant and the momentum of the frenzied doctor and his wild swing sent him stumbling across the curbstone, where he struck a rough place in the pavement and went sprawling out into the street. The impression of one knee and his finger nails were marked on the asphalt for some distance. He then hobbled to his automobile and rode away.

Hughes obtained a complaint from the District Attorney's office and a warrant was issued by Justice Williams. Shortly after 6 o'clock last night Pahl was taken to the Central Police Station and booked. He gave $100 cash bail and will be arraigned this morning on a charge of assault.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.
TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Following is a copy of the official report filed by the superintendent of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan with the Executive Committee in the case of Mrs. Shopbell:

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) May 14, 1910.
—To the Executive Committee:
At 11:30 a. m. on Friday, May 13, Mrs. Mamie Shopbell was brought to the Hospital of the Good Samaritan by her husband, E. Shopbell, and her brother, Dr. A. T. Barkley.

The patient walked into the hospital and was shown to room 402, which Dr. Barkley and her husband had previously engaged for her accommodation.

Mrs. Shopbell was entered as a patient who was to be made ready for an examination under anesthesia the following morning, a history being given of some abdominal tumor or growth which had been previously examined, but concerning which Dr.
Barkley was unable to satisfy himself,
hence had made arrangements for Mrs.
Shopbell in the hospital, where a complete examination and diagnosis of the case could be made.

Mrs. Shopbell, while a frail-seeming woman, with a history of prolonged ill health, seemed very pleasant and cheerful, eating a good dinner, and spending the greater part of the afternoon visiting with her husband and brother, who remained until she had partaken of her supper at 8:30 o'clock, when they remarked that she had eaten more than she had done in a long time.

Mr. Shopbell and Dr. Barkley left the hospital some time after Mrs.
Shopbell had eaten her supper, and did not expect to return that night.
The patient was made ready for the night, all but her bath, which she requested to be left until 8 o'clock of the same evening.

At 6:45 Mrs. Shopbell was walking in the hall, where she spoke pleasantly to her nurse, Miss Griffith, whom she met. A few minutes later several of the hospital employes outside the building heard the sound of a heavy object falling, and hastening to the spot found this lady lying upon the ground near the southeast corner of the building. Dr. Pahl was immediately upon the spot and ordered her carried upon a stretcher to a near-by room.

On being asked her name she said she was Mrs. Shopbell, and an uplifted screen in the window of room 402 also confirmed her identity. She was conscious when placed upon the bed, and asked: "What happened?"

The patient was undressed and examined. She had fallen from a fourth story window, presumably. There were a few bruises, and a fracture of both arms just above the elbow, and she seemed profoundly shocked. No radial pulse could be felt, but the pulse at the varicose arteries was 120 and of fair volume; respiration, 21 per minute.
The patient was very listless and becoming cold and clammy. Stimulants were administered as soon as possible, strychnine, adrenalin and normal salt

sol. The patient recognized her husband and brother, who had been immediately sent for, but soon became delirious, and then unconscious, and died at 9:15 p. m.

An examination of the room recently occupied by Mrs. Shopbell disclosed a wide-open window screen; a rocking chair pulled up under the window, and particles of wool or fuzz, like the material of the dressing gown worn by Mrs. Shopbell, upon a rough place of the window sill, indicating that the patient either leaned very far out of the window and lost her balance or, in a moment of temporary derangement, had thrown herself from the window.

Mrs. Shopbell was not considered by any one as a mental case, and did not have a special or private nurse, and the manner of her death was a great surprise. The husband, E. Shop-bell, and the brother, Dr. A. T. Barkley, were immediately in possession of all the facts known in the case by the hospital authorities. After death the body was placed in the sanctity of the hospital, and at 8 o'clock in the morning the coroner was notified of the circumstances of the lady's death, and shortly took charge of the body.

Respectfully submitted,
[Signed] HARRIET W. PAHL, Superintendent.

Was Saloon-keeper.
SAN BERNARDINO, May 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] P. C. Pahl, from 1895 to 1897, conducted a saloon at Victorville; but those who knew him well say he did not keep a dive, though it is said there was gambling in his place. At the same time he conducted an assay office and freighting business.
He failed of success, and as one friend told the circumstances of the lady's death, and shortly took charge of the body.

HONORS FOR ROOSEVELT.
Proposition to Name Male Babies, Born
on Day of His Arrival,
After Him.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, May 17.—If the suggestion of Max Lansburgh of this city should be followed, many more family Bibles than now do so would show
"T. R." as the given name initials of youngsters of the male persuasion who might be ushered into existence on the day that Theodore Roosevelt returns to this country. Mr. Lansburgh thinks the bestowal of the name of the "United States' most distinguished citizen" upon all prospective voters born on that day would be a graceful compliment to Mr. Roosevelt. He will submit the idea to William Loeb, Jr., chairman of the Roosevelt Reception Committee in New York.

Nature's Remedies for Disease Nature provides more effective remedies in the roots and herbs of the field than were ever produced from drugs.

Thirty years ago, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy made from roots and herbs, which has proved more efficacious in curing women's diseases than any other medicine the world has ever known, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is looked upon everywhere as the standard remedy for women's ills.

HIS THIRD FIRE.

Mining Promoter Loses Two Trunks of Clothes in Phoenix Blaze.

"Billy" Gordon, a mining promoter, who arrived several days ago at the Hayward had the blues yesterday. The reason was not hard to find. Not knowing how long he would remain in Los Angeles, he had left his trunks at the Adams House, Phoenix, Arizona, when the great fire broke out. The loss of his trunks was a severe blow to him, as he had to leave his home in a hurry, and he had to leave his trunks at the Adams House, Phoenix, Arizona, when the great fire broke out. The loss of his trunks was a severe blow to him, as he had to leave his home in a hurry, and he had to leave his trunks at the Adams House, Phoenix, Arizona, when the great fire broke out.

"I wouldn't say a word if this were the first fire, but it's the third in less than two years that has wiped out my personal effects," he said. "The first fire that caused a depletion of my belongings was the one at Ralston, when the great fire broke out. The loss of my trunks was a severe blow to me, as I had to leave my home in a hurry, and I had to leave my trunks at the Adams House, Phoenix, Arizona, when the great fire broke out."

Now comes the final blow, the burning of the Adams House. I had spent several weeks in Phoenix, and I was knowing how long I would be on the road, I left two trunks of wearing apparel there. Guess some one has put a fire on me," and Gordon turned on his heel and took the next elevator for his room, there to console himself in solitude.

DOCUMENTS MISSING.

Man Who Is Found Bound and Gagged Declares His Acquaintance Bought Important Papers.

Frank M. Bell of No. 1200 Fleming street, who was found bound and gagged on the floor of his cabin on the night of the 12th inst., yesterday reported to the police the possible motive of the attack upon him.

Bell stated that recently a civil complaint was filed against him in the Superior Court and that he had important documents bearing upon his defense and also important papers relative to a divorce suit filed by his wife, hidden in his room. He alleges that he has just discovered the theft of these papers and says he believes he was attacked by men who were in search of the documents.

CALIFORNIA WINE RELEASED.

FORT SMITH (Ark.) May 17.—Federal Judge Rogers today released a shipment of California wine that was attached here recently under the provision of the pure food law, that wine must be properly labeled, it having been charged that the wine was mislabeled. Judge Rogers followed the recent Supreme Court ruling that when the label gave the place of manufacture and the name of the brand, there was no violation of the law.

"I cured me," or "it saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is the true world over where the remedy has been used for generations. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by all dealers.
